New York special says. An unusual scene occurred in Plymouth church at the morning service pesterday. In the course of his sermon Mr. Beecher said. If the course of his sermon Mr. Beecher said. If then think there is any harm in horse-roung, to horses, but to men there is a great dual, although, abstractly, there is no more harm in running one horse against another than in running one horse against an other, yet, as an institution we are warned by experience that, unless very curefully guarded, races improve the brood of horse's by deterioriting the breed of men."

At this juncture a man pecupying a seat in the gallery shoulded. "That is not true." The people turned their heads to look at him in amazement.

"What is not true?" asked Beecher, in a stern voice, but the author of the contradiction shrank from making blusself known to this andience, and remained silent. Mr. Beecher stamped his foot and added, emphatically "What I have said is true, and I repeat it with thundering emphasis. Loud applause! I have sympathy with everything that enlarges the liberty of man, but liberty should he so administered that it should not damn the space and leave, but should inspire them and lifthen up. "THE ORFGONIAN" ON THE CARS. Persons who travel on the O B. N & North-Foreign who traced on the O.R. N. a. Northern Pacific roals are hereby informed that C. Riley, news agent on said roads, has no right to charge more than five cents for This jonationary, and that any charge above the sum is a fraud both upon the public and upon the office. He has long been charging ten cents for the paper on those reads, contrary to his agreement. To ston it we consider the extraction of the contrary to the co ment. To stop it we caused to be stamped in large letters on each paper sold to him a notice that the price of the paper was his conts only, coupled with a request that persons who were required to pay more should notify the office thereof. Complaints of such overcharge bave come and the office in great numbers during many months past. In many cases, to get rid of the notice stamped on the puper, the same has been form off by Mr. Riley or his employee, and the sheet time unpulated has been sold for and the sheet time indicated has been sold for tim cents. The Officionian is doing its best to stop this swindle, and to this end it is mosts the aid of the traveling public.

Mr Riley has recently acquired the right to self papers on the trains of the O. &.(. He was told that he could not have The Oregovian to sell on that road for less than five cents a conv. unless he gave a satisfactory guarantee that the swindle practice I in selling it on the other roads should not be transferred to the O. L. C. but If such guarantee were given, then the paper would be supplied to him at the rate made to all newsdealers. In other words, if Mr. Riley will sell the paper on the O. L. C. for five cents he shall have it for three, but if he is going to charge ten cents for it, as he has been foung on the O. R. & N. and Northern Pacific, he shall pay the office five cents for it, or not sell it at all. Provision will be made at all the principal slations for selling the paper at five cents, so that every person who wants it will have opporunity to get it without paying tribute to

HIDLS AND LEATHER GOODS

It is nothing musual to see bules of indes bauled through our streets, to be transported to the eastern states. Twenty years ago, when people saw our lides carried away (as they have been tarned away ever suice) it was thought the time was not distant when they would be hanned at home and made up into seather reads to support the transport of the product of the pr heather goods to supply our own market. But that result still seems as distant as ever. We send our hides away in the raw state and bring back the finished product. We pay the trans-portation both wats, and concede to eastern manufacturers and jobbers the entire profits of an extensive business. Yet here is an industry peculiarly suited to the resources and harkels of Oregon. We have the lides and the platerial of oregon. We nave the indees and the punternal to tan them, and the consumption of leather goods with us is large and steadily increasing. With the exception of a small tannery at Astonia, we do not know of any real effort in the state to establish this most Important business.

The best material for tanning is the sart of hemics and onk aid oregon has a great sup-bly of both. Nor is it, in/companion with its accessibility elsewhere, difficult to obtain here At Medford and Schierville, near Roston, the great tameries the supplied with back from (anada, find in he forests of the Adbrondakas tameries are es-tablished at of near the source of suppliof tanning materials. The skins tanned at thes places come from the great plans, from the Pa-cific coast, from South America. Made up into boots and shoes and into all sorts of leather goods, the markets in all directions are sup-gisted. We buy back the limshed proceeds of our own raw materials, and labor and capital at the cast reap the profits. Needless to stry, the rust is rich and the west ten into poor. Why should our people so long neglect the re-recurres and the interests of their gwn country.

This is one branch only of industry, yet it is among the most important and may take a write range. It is also one of those industries which the resources of our state make it evalett to establish. Here, where we have blikes and skins and taining materials and a market for the products of leather industries, we certainly can succeed in these industries if they can be carried on with success at places thousands of mice distant from the supply of raw materials and equally distant from the consumers of the products. We must have hoots and shoes and harness and builting in ever increasing quantities. For the lighter leather goods there is also an ever-growing demand. Skins that are worked up i.to gloves, as well as hides that are made into boots and shoes and harness, nlight be dressed and manufactured here. Knowledge of the business is, of course, as essential in the capital necessary to establish it, und evan more so, for industries may be started in a small way without much cash capital, if only skill and knowledge tre beblind them. All the great establishments of the country, in all lines, have started so. Fvery great productive industry is a growth. It can not be created in a day or a year Great results, store, are not to be looked for at ouce. But when shall we see the beginnings

REPUBLICAN SIMPLICITY

The London Leho, in an article on the change uttered a warning to the kings and urbices do it. are paragraes in the old world. It it no mag-nific at how the democratic principle works to new conditions? One warner this no suc-cerded another by force of arms. The rise of a party has become bluef of the state, but the state is still his chief. President Arthur couses to be the ruler of fifth millions of linen and gives back to his own i winners of men and gless hack to his own of his own office to work as a lawyer for ins fiving. When Nupoleon, the Little, had to caush from I reas he had three-quarters of a million carefully pur londed and invested. Mr. Arthur chrises noth ing with him into reticement but the respect of the people, and by and by M. Cleveland will do the same. In the democracy individual ambi-flows due and despots and truches the wirrors have no place. The only ambilion allowed to a man is to serve the state well and having done

The Paner Presor St. Phuli is in these words a text for an unportant less in for our people. There is scarcely any community in this country, it says, "where lapses from integrity can not be directly fried to love of display and the ambitum of smill recounts to qual or to cutshage great ones—social contests are respanishe to a heavy percentage of the defairst operannually chronicled. It traces the moving scandals which from time to time have been terraled in commercian with Washing on life, the courts martial, the public disgrace, this or casional revolution of a filtching of public moments to unkergood a private deficit, to the competition in high living Apart from the de-radation of individual character which ensues, this departure from republican simplicity directby inpurs the public service. When public life becomes so expensive that only the wealthy and also d to serve their country, and men of distinguished ability cannot afford to be opt positions. where the salaries are not large, there is not only a loss to the service but there is dauger a so of decay of public spirit among the people "The wealthiest man among us is the best," as Wordsworth said of England, lamenting the Wordsworth said of England, lamenting the apacity of the people when that "nea girt isle" was in danger of measion by Napoleon. THE NATIONAL PLNANCLS

The management of the national finances is one of the things to which the republican party can justly point with pride. The public debt statement of March 1, the last monthly statement made by a republican administration, shows that the form interest-beating debt is new $1,180,118,050/. The reduction during the last month was $3,24,975. The reduction since have nonth was $3,214,473. The reduction since the beginning of the fiscal year has been $41,4-126,885. The public debt reached its highest point in August 1865, when it was $2,755,481,581,245. The annual interest charge was $150,477,690. The average rate of interest was $350,477,690. The average rate of interest was $350,477,690. The average rate of interest was $350,477,690. The average rate of lotter set was $350,477,690. The average rate of lotter $1,530,568,21. The annual interest charge has been perfect from $5,17,100,817,000. charge has been pared down to $17,32,831, and be rate to $92. In other words, one-half the sebt has been cance ed, the interest charge has been cut down two-thirds, and the rate by judicious refunding has been reduced nearly our-ented the wonder of the world. The debt is now reduced to a point where its future manng entent will be comparatively easy. The finan-call questions of real difficulty loft unsertied are these concerning the puper and the metallic cur-tonics. The sliver bill was report by President Haves, and President Arthur in his first, and account in dissecond message to congress, recommended the retirement of the silver ceitificates and the suspension of silver colonings. President the coloning that the stops of his preage, recognizing the fact that the adjace on age, recognizing the fact that the adjace of a great nation do not go beekward. In his message President (eveland says that the country wants "a cound and sensible basis" for its linances, which is just what the uliministrations of Arthur, Hayes and Grant labored to provide As the bonds on which the national banking sis em is based mature and are called in, the sis em will require readjustment. But the necessity for discussion on this point is remote cessity for discussion of this point is remote compared with the silver question. That is im-me hate and pressing. The enforced coinage of these slipri-weight delitary, unless it is speedily to ped, will unsettle all values and give us a Mexican currency of silver alone, with gold at a aneutran currency of airrer alone, with gold at a constantly shifting premium. The owners of silver mines will bring a strong pressure upon the administration to continue the purch see of bullion for comage. The mining industry is an important one, but if must not be permitted to insurp cohirol in the municement of the national founces. The agricultural returns which have just been put lished in England present a remarkably stronge problem. The cultivated area of Great Britain has increased $1,000 acres during the past year and 1,303,000 since 1877, yet the period since 1873 has been the most disastrous of the century, and the food imported has increased in value from $293,290,000 in 1864 in $787,600,000 last year. During this period of increasing cultivation of the soil there has been a decrease of 1,011,000 acres in widle land, and although there has been an increase of 2,575,000 acres in grazing land there has scarcely been an increase grating and here has scattern been an increase in flocks and herets. The number of sheep has decreased 1,854,000 it spite of the fact that the price of meat has been constantly rising during hat period. This anomalous state of things is difficult to explain except upon the theory of greatly improved mole of living by the masses. But it tends to show that the production of gruin in the British Isles must decrease more and more every year, and that the farmers will the can't not those. have to turn their attention to breeding poultry, making cheese and butter, and supplying the markets with fresh meat. McDongall was standing in front of the honse when the ropes and chains tightened up under a fresh strain. At this install an importer link parted and one ent of the lonest, directly over the heart. He threw up his hands and staggered back into his partner's mass. He was carried into Pfunder's drug store, where he died in a few minutes. Coroner Cooke was notified and the body was removed to the norgue. Drs. Wheeler and Lame at tempted reasocitation by means of a galeanic battery but willout avail. At the coroner's inquest by Keys teasifed that the deceased had evidently been afflicted with atrophy or thinning of the wails of the heart, and that the suiden blow on the chest had been sufficient to rupture that organ, which was indoubtedly the cause of death. I creased was about 50 years of age. He canne to Portland nine years ago, and had been engaged in house in uning for some time. He have a wife and son, who reside at No. 10) North Seventh street. The funeral will take place to morrow under the nuspices of the 4r. A. R., McDongail having been a member of Lamobi Post. Puring the war he belonged to the New York volunteers.

HONDING AND ABBURG.—The hunting party which visited Souvie's island on Sunday met with rather poor luck. It seems that some of which visited 'anivie's island on 'andly met with rather poor lock. It seems that some of the honest grangers down in that region leave these lake s to sportsmen and when any ducks come around the honest grunger shoots at them and lags a few and drives the rest away. This is a sight vuration of the old style of killing two birds with one stone. The dry was a deplicit one and it was pleasure enough to be alread in the bright suishing even if the ducks were scarce. A few canyas-backs were secured, but after an hour or two waiting "the Boss" and Nichol srught the shade of the willows and soon were peacefully shoring in thorus. Even the indefatigable Bodley thred of the "sport" and sacked up his decay for the season. There will scarcely is any more hunting parties to Sarvie's island it a summer. The guas will be cleaned and laid away, and islung rods will be got out and overhuid! Two weeks more will end the close season for trout. It is to be feared that a good in any of these lish will be closed out before that time. Every sportsman should keep a bright look out for the next two weeks for violators of the game law, as owing to the fine weather it is more than probable that trout will take both bat and fly notwithstanding that the comore at the violation of the law made for their protection by so do ng Vertically Systems—The coroner's jury in the case of Sue Tei, the 4 houweans who deal not Thursday night with every symptom of opium poisoning, held their final session last evening. The only additional testimony offered was that of Dr R. G. Rev, who had finished his autops. The evidence which he gave was very brief, and to the effect that there was no internal disease and that in his opinion death ensued from an overdose of opium, traces of which he had been able to find in the stomach by means of a chiling and audiple. Upon this testimony, taken in connection with the preponderance of the Chimese evidence, the jury returned a verdict of sun its Judge Welty, who is engaged by the husband of the dead woman to prosecute the charge of murder in ide against the wife of Wong (hung, could not be found after the verdict was tendered, but he stated in the aftermout that he proposed to go on with the preliminary examination of the prisoner in the police coult to-day, and had some evidence to ofer which was not present to the corroner's jury.
